ABOUT THE INSTITUTION

Biyani Institute of Architecture & Design (BIAD), Jaipur was established in 2023 with the vision of building a learning campus that supports creative exploration and nurtures the journey of students towards a meaningful architectural practice. With its energetic, innovative and vibrant approach to architectural education, The school has been envisioned as a center for excellence in tropical architecture with partners across the world and plans to offer undergraduate programs in architecture, interior design, arts and product design in the near future. BIAD is a constituent Institute of Biyani group of colleges a premier group of colleges in Jaipur. The Biyani Group of Colleges has been accredited with an 'A' grade by the National Assessment & Accreditation Council (NAAC). The college offers a 5-year Bachelor in Architecture program that is approved by the Council of Architecture(COA) and affiliated to Rajasthan technical university.

The curriculum at BIAD is designed to incorporate hands-on practical training with theory-based education so that students learn by 'doing'. They can explore design through materials such as clay and wood. Structures are taught using models and real-life scenarios and students work with design professionals and learn under their supervision. An impactful architectural education at BIAD is a given, but apart from that, students will also learn real-life skills that will make them market-ready for a fruitful professional career.
